PRESS RELEASE

The Historic Pen Company partners with the City of Wildwood Exclusive agreement allows visitors and residents to own a piece of history.

Wildwood, NJ – August 17, 2012: The Historic Pen Company today announced an exclusive licensing agreement with the City of Wildwood with the release of The Historic Pen Company's initial line of fine quality writing instruments, key chains, bottle stoppers, Christmas ornaments and other products produced from actual Wildwood Boardwalk wood by The Historic Pen Company's artisans and craftsman.

The Historic Pen Company is committed to the repurposing of "witness wood" and other materials removed during the restoration, renovation and regular maintenance of historic and cultural sites throughout the United States and along with City of Wildwood are commemorating the historical and cultural significance of the Wildwood Boardwalk and Beaches in this Wildwood's Centennial.

The pleasure and memories the Wildwood Boardwalk has provided to millions of visitors over the years can now be enjoyed year round through the ownership of an assortment of high quality functional and decorative pieces of art. Wildwood vacationers can now carry a piece of history and the "Jersey Shore" with them in the form of one of a kind pen, pencil or key chain or reminisce and relive memories of summers past in the dead of winter when the put one of the several Wildwood Boardwalk Collection ornaments on the Christmas tree.

The Wildwood Boardwalk Collection is a handcrafted line of product and one of a kind art pieces designed and Made in America by American woodworkers, craftsman, artisans and master pen makers.

"We are excited by the prospects and the opportunity to work with the City of Wildwood", said Amanda DeMartino, CEO of The Historic Pen Company. "It furthers our commitment to Keep History Alive by preserving pieces of our national historic and cultural identity".

The Historic Pen Company is based in Manahawkin, NJ. www.HistoricPenCompany.com